Dear Valued Customer,

Trading services of Triple Leveraged ETF in the U.S. stock market are suspended

Thank you for your continued support to Haitong International Securities Limited!

Due to the sharp volatility of the international financial market, the trading risk of leveraged exchange traded funds (leveraged ETFs) has increased dramatically. In order to reduce the risk of customers, with immediate effect, the Company will suspend the trading services of all Triple Leveraged Exchange Traded Funds in the U.S. stock market until further notice, but the selling service of the relevant products purchased earlier will not be affected.
